

December 2009

Dear Fellow Investors and Friends:

As you know, ADF is and always will be a supporting ministry of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. While the vast majority of our work focuses on providing real estate project funding for churches here in the U.S. using the funds you have invested, we are always aware of the connection these churches and ADF have with the worldwide work of the C&MA. We believe ADF investors share this same heart and perspective.

One of ADF's strategic initiatives that we wanted you to know about is our efforts to develop gift income to provide an additional source of funds for helping churches in unique circumstances and for supporting special projects. ADF has agreed to be a partner with the C&MA in raising donations for a limited number of targeted, priority overseas and domestic projects that involve obtaining facilities for ministry. This is an exciting endeavor that will greatly benefit the Kingdom. We believe that partnering in this way fits well with our mission and vision, and may be of interest to ADF investors who desire to give to special, real estate-based projects.

The first strategic project we have selected is to help raise $60,000 to complete the construction of a church/training center in central China. The church currently meets in a 5th floor apartment, which is completely inadequate for the growing 300-member congregation. ADF is helping promote this strategic project through various means.

For security reasons, it is best that I do not go into too much detail using this online medium. However, if you would like more information or if you would like to contribute to this exciting project, I encourage you to contact Doug Wicks at the C&MA (719-265-2006 or wicksd@cmalliance.org).

In addition to the ongoing support ADF investors provide directly to the C&MA for the Great Commission Fund, national and international projects, and other C&MA ministries, many ADF investors provide special gifts to or through ADF. Many times these are in the form of a "gift over" of invested funds as investment certificates mature or at the investor's death. We are very grateful for these gifts.

Thank you for your continued partnership with ADF. You are making an eternal impact on innumerable lives through your investments. May God bless you this Christmas and through the coming year as you have been a blessing to others.

As always, I welcome your questions, comments, or prayer requests.

Sincerely,
